

NAPLES COMPREHENSIVE HEALTH

David Backstein, MD

Medical Director, Hospital for Special Surgery (HSS) at Naples Comprehensive Health (NCH)

Dr. David Backstein completed his medical degree at the University of Toronto in Ontario, Canada in 1993. He then completed a residency in orthopaedic surgery at the University of Toronto. He also completed several fellowships including a surgical education fellowship at the University of Toronto, a clinical fellowship focusing on hip and knee arthroplasty at Mount Sinai Hospital in Toronto, and the John Insall Travelling Knee Fellowship through the Knee Society in New York, N.Y. He is board certified by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada. Dr. Backstein practiced at Mount Sinai Hospital in Toronto for 24 years, with a focus on the reconstruction of complex lower extremity joint replacement. Dr. Backstein was the Chief of the Department of Orthopedic Surgery at Mount Sinai Hospital, University of Toronto from 2011 until he joined HSS at NCH in Naples, Florida.

Dr. Backstein joins the Hospital for Special Surgery at NCH from Mount Sinai Hospital in Ontario, Canada. He is a distinguished educator and has won several awards for his dedication and contribution to medical education. Dr. Backstein is an active member of the American Knee Society, and has a passion for clinical research, and serves on numerous professional committees.

Dr. Backstein's goal is to always provide the highest level of patient care through clear and consistent communication and patient education.